August 2018

Thank you so much for your prayers on our behalf. We also appreciate very much those of you that continue to support our ministry faithfully each month. God bless you.

God has blessed in marvelous ways during the past few weeks.

1. I had the stent removed that was put in place after removal of a kidney stone from my urinary tract. This is a blessing for sure.
2. We had a wonderful trip to Indiana where we were able to spend time with our precious daughter Susan and her family. We were able to base there while I attend the FBMI Missions Mastermind in Lombard, Illinois.
3. The Missions Mastermind was a real blessing to me and our son-in-law Kevin. We met new missionaries, some pastors that we had long heard of and several missions-minded business men. I was challenged and blessed by some new and innovative ideas. Dr. Mark Bosje as the Director of FMI and his staff were a special blessing. The fellowship with like-minded missions leaders was apposite.
4. We also had the opportunity to meet Jennifer-Ruth Green the Founder of MissionAero Pipeline. Jennifer and her associates have a vision to challenge young people to prayerfully consider aviation as a part of God's will for their lives. It was a great honor to meet this USAF Academy graduate and active Major in the AF Reserve, all while serving with FBMI and the College.
5. We met a young engineer named Will and his family at Susan and Kevin's church in Dyer. He is beginning pilot training to be able to serve the Lord.
6. It was a blessed this month to know that a Bible College in western North Carolina decided to use our book "How To Plant Indigenous Churches" in their Missions Department. Please pray that other colleges will do the same. Shamefully, a number of fundamental schools still use a book on indigenous principles written by a Pentecostal.
7. We also received request for permission to use the book in a Bible Institute in Australia. Shipping costs to Australia are prohibitive so we are working with them to allow them to download the three or four copies they need and send the cost of the books.
8. You know our passion is the Hispanic ministry. Well, two missionaries to Hispanic countries have also expressed desire to use the Spanish version (Iglesias Autonomas) in their Bible Institutes and ministries. A writer's dream is to see God honored and his books used to help others. Glory to God!
9. I was able to finish my Bi-annual flight review last Saturday.
10. We have an open door to hold some special evangelistic meetings among Hispanics in Florida in coming weeks. Please pray for souls to be saved.
