Dear Praying Friends,

Today is the first day of Spring. It is cool but sunny, at least for the morning. This winter has been our worst in 25 years. We have had more snow than in the previous 5 years combined. Our attendance is off, due to the number of snowy Sundays. But that doesn't matter. We didn't come here for the weather.

Yesterday, one of our families didn't make it to church because they hit a patch of ice and snow on the road, spun out, and ended up in the ditch. No one was hurt, praise the Lord. Another praise is that a girl in our grade 3-4 Sunday School class received the Lord as her Savior yesterday. One more good report: One of our ladies was concerned for the spiritual needs of her elderly parents, who were visiting from China. She asked us to come over on Thursday evening. We explained that we had Youth Bible Study that night and would not get through until about 10:00 p.m. She said, come on anyway, she would keep them up. We arrive at 10:30 and they asked Jesus to be their Savior just before midnight. God is good!

We have been missionaries to the Chinese for 46 years now. Last month, I celebrated my 70th birthday, and this July, Joyce and I will celebrate our 49th wedding anniversary. God has been so very good to us! Our health is not perfect, but God gives us strength to stay in the battle.

We pledge to keep faithful to God's calling, as long as He keeps us able. Also, we deeply appreciate your faithfulness through these many years in Taiwan and now in Canada. You have been with us through thick and thin. God bless you richly!

In Christ service,

Fred and Joyce Davis
