

December 2014

Dear Family and Friends,

We hope you are enjoying this special time of year. I am reminded of that wonderful promise in Luke 2:12. The angel is speaking to the shepherds, and he tells them, "...ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes lying in a manger." I love those words, "...ye shall find..." For the shepherds, the promise was kept. They found Jesus. I hope this Christmas season we make Jesus easy to find.

Since our last letter God has given us a new opportunity to minister in our community. I met a Taiwanese English teacher who was looking for a foreigner to help teach English to the kids that come to her school. She asked if we could help her and her husband at their English school. After much prayer and a conversation with April, we felt it was a great opportunity for us to make new contacts, as well as, to use God's Word to teach English. For the last month, I have had a captive audience while I teach God's Word, and I didn't have to go find the audience. God gave them to us. What a BLESSING!

Even though at this time we have only a handful coming to our Bible study, we are thankful for how God is working in their lives. Each week we hear them talk about how God is working in their hearts. Please pray that God will give us wisdom as we continue to teach them God's Word and try to help them grow in their walk with God. Please continue to pray for Kidd's salvation. I talked with him about his soul and he told me that he knows there is something true about what I have been teaching, but he still has some questions. Pray that the Holy Spirit will continue to work in his heart.

We are praying for your Christmas season. We hope God gives you the best Christmas you have ever had.
