Dear Praying Friends and Family,

We are completely thrilled and bit still in shock that tomorrow, 10 March, we have the privilege to fly to England to jump right into the ministry and place where God has lead us! We ask that you please keep us in your prayers as we fly from Knoxville to Chicago at 11.40 am and then from Chicago to London. Please pray:

- For no flight delays
- For calm and uneventful flights
- For our luggage to arrive on time
- For us physically as we adjust to the time change

We cannot believe that the day has come for us to leave and are so thankful for each of you who have been by our side praying with and for us, and supporting us financially, and simply being our friends. We can all check 'leave for England' off our prayer lists in just a few hours!

Packing our Container.

A HUGE 'thank you' goes to all who assisted in getting our container shipped out this past Saturday, 5 March! We had a group of 10 people help us load everything– we could not have done it without them! Please help us pray that it will arrive quickly and safely.

Our friend, Wes Mullins, praying for God to help us load the container quickly and carefully and for the contents to be used to 'Redeem the Time' in the United Kingdom.

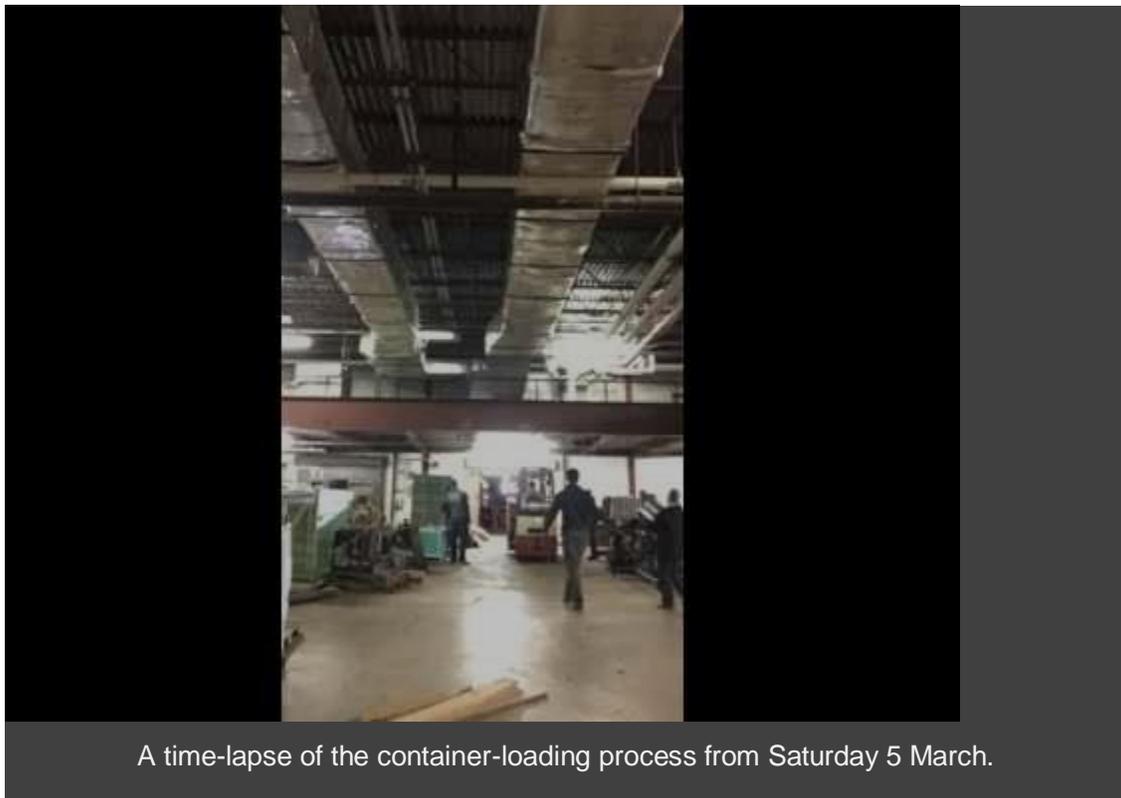

Getting ready to get started loading the container!
Notice the happy faces :)

What a great team (missing one who had to leave early) of people who helped us load our container! Faces of relief now (ha!).

Our pallets are on! About to load the rest for Camp Victory, Crown Hall, and fellow missionaries.

A time-lapse of the container-loading process from Saturday 5 March.

Birthday Thank You from Joy:

Thank you to all who took time to wish me a happy birthday. I had a lovely day on Sunday at our home church and celebrating with friends. To those of you who sent me FB messages, txt messages, and cards, etc. 'Thank you!' so much for thinking of me. I have a feeling that 2016 is going to be a year of big adventures and I am truly thrilled to see what God has in store.
