serving in Fiji

January/February 2018

Bula! From the Leonard Family!

January Highlight: January was surprisingly a busy time for our family. We started off the first Sunday in January with a Missions Sunday in Maryland where I had to privilege to preach for the first time in a Spanish service with an interpreter. We continued on our way to meetings in Tennessee, Georgia and a winter revival in North Carolina. We ended the month attending a Missions Conference in Alabama. I had another great opportunity during the conference to present in the Spanish church and also preach in a Korean service. It was defiantly an interesting month getting the experience of preaching in three different services with interpreters.

February Highlight: February started with a local missions conference in our hometown. In fact, this was my home church as a young child. It was a blessing to be back, see many friends, and share our call to Fiji. February also had us hitting the airways with a trip to Canada and California for a Missions Conference. Before my trip to Canada I became aware that I was traveling to my father's hometown. I also happened to be staying only a few yards from the cemetery where my great-great grandfather was buried. Our California trip was a blessing and the children enjoyed once again flying in the airplane. On every flight Brianna asked if this was the plane taking us to Fiji.

Family Highlight: We had planned this prayer letter as a time to share some happy news. In December we found out that we were expecting our fourth child, but on February 27, at our appointment with the midwife, we got the unexpected news that our sweet baby had no heartbeat. On February 28 at 4:30 our Elizabeth Miranda was born into the arms of Jesus. We rejoice in the short time we had her here on Earth, but we know she is in the most perfect place and right where God wants her.

Please continue to pray for our family during this time.

In prayer for Fiji,
Robbie Leonard and family
