Rev. Rodney Kelley
West Jacksonville Baptist Church
5634 Normandy Blvd
Jacksonville, FL 32205

Dear Brother Kelley and Friends at West Jacksonville Baptist:

Recently, we were back at Rincon Baptist Temple in Rincon, Georgia. This church, like so many of our friends and supporting churches, has such special meaning to us. It was back in 1969 that we first visited the church. We were on our way to Australia. It was a dark night and the church then, with just a few folks, was meeting in a house just over the railroad tracks. Now, they meet in a beautiful building. On that night, so many years past, that small band of believers took us on as missionaries, and for all of those years they have faithfully stood with us. We had a great reunion, and there was a great spirit in the meeting.

We continue to challenge Christians to surrender to the will of God. Since that night so long ago, in Rincon, Georgia, we have established churches in Australia and England and traveled in more than 50 countries presenting the message of Christ. Your standing with us means so much.

In recent weeks, we have had the opportunity to challenge churches in Tennessee, Virginia, and Georgia. In a letter to one of our missionaries, a convert from Siberia wrote, "You brought God to our place." That comment tells the story. All of us are in this work together— those who hold the ropes and those who go.

Thank you for praying for us, and supporting us, as together we continue to tell the Story. We are:

Yours for the Harvest,

The Rays
