Dear Friends,

While I, along with other pastors, were laying our hands on a young man who is from our church, his name is Adelmir, I remembered with lots of joy when he was a young child. We won him to Christ along with all his family. Then every day at 6:00 a.m. we would teach them how to have family devotions and we would do it with all of them till they learned.

Also I remembered the day he went forward in our church to consecrate his life to the Lord, and later graduated from our Bible Institute. He would go with me all the time to help start new churches, a great worker for the Lord, always with a smile on his face. Today we are ordaining him into the ministry as a pastor and he has already started a new church in the state of Portuguesa. When we were finished ordaining him, with tears in his eyes, he gave me a hug and said, "Thank you, Pastor, for having patience with me and for training me to be able to serve our wonderful God.

There are times when we don't realize when we lead a child to Christ and spend time with him, guiding him, we never know what God has planned for his life. We don't know how God will use him in the future to do mighty things for His honor and glory.

We send our love and a huge hug for each and every one of you. May the Lord give you a precious Christmas and a new year 2022 full of much fruit for our Lord and Saviour.

May the Lord bless you mightily,

Carlos & Susan Arce
