Assisting Church Planters in Kenya

2nd Generation Missionary

Dear Praying Friends,

July 2021

Every new missionary quickly learns that missions involves much more than what is typically imagined. It is easy to picture missions involving learning a language and culture, building relationships, prayer, and Bible study. It is sometimes easy to forget that it also involves some mundane logistics. Getting government paperwork in a country is part of the missionary journey that is not quite as exciting, although it can be an adventure! I am very grateful to have completed the first big step, and I am only waiting for approval to finalize the second step. Things are beginning to fall into place—Praise the Lord!

One recent joy was that the Lord allowed me to be with my sister during her wedding. It has been special to see the Lord bringing David and Deborah together and preparing them for each other! I am so thankful for a godly sister and friend...and now a godly brother-in-law!

On the plane rides, the Lord opened the door for me to witness to several different people; they were from Uganda, Sweden, England, New Jersey, and New York! I was able to speak for quite a while to most of them. A couple of them claimed salvation; others were somewhat familiar with the Bible; and for one, salvation seems to have been a new concept. It is my prayer that the Lord will use the passing interactions with these people to make a difference in their eternity!

Now, back in Kenya, I thank the Lord for progress being made in some ministries, even though we are not able to assume a normal schedule yet. In our area, a recent spike in Covid cases has shut down public meetings once again—including church services. However, Kay-Leigh Shelby and I are still able to hold our Bible club, and we have had several new children coming, excited to learn more about the Bible. Thank you for your prayers!

In His service,

Erica Bohman
