Assisting Church Planters in Kenya
2nd Generation Missionary

March-April 2019

Dear Praying Friends,

Paul admonished the Philippians, “Be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample...” (Phil 3:17) Two of the people I have “marked” as spiritual examples in my life are my Uncle Charles and Aunt Jurldean Strong, who have labored as missionaries in Mexico for forty-eight years and counting! When my mother was young, my grandparents would take their vacation time to visit their relatives in Mexico, wanting to expose their girls to the mission field as much as possible. It was on one of these trips that my mother surrendered to missions. The highlight of the past month has been to visit Mexico with my uncle and aunt myself! It was special to visit the country that had given my mother a burden for missions and to see several people she knew as a girl. What a joy to meet brothers and sisters in Christ in another country and to see their burden for the lost as I presented Kenya to the church in Rio Bravo!

The Lord has blessed with traveling mercies through two more busy months. Currently, I have about 85% of my support! The Lord has allowed me to present my ministry not only to adults but also eighteen times to teens or children! I’ve enjoyed visiting in a couple of Christian schools and talking to several young people with an interest in missions. I was also able to help explain salvation to a child—I love to see their minds open to the truth of the Gospel and see their quick faith! As I travel, I am grateful for opportunities to witness to different people I meet...people working in restaurants, stores, or hotels. Recently, it was a joy to see a visitor accept my invitation, come to church, and get connected with the people there!

I was excited to meet a lady with a ministry in America similar to what I hope to start in Africa. Mrs. Allen has a regular schedule of visiting in daycares, public schools, and elder-care homes presenting the Gospel. I enjoyed tagging along for a day and talking about the Bible and Africa in a local daycare. Praise the Lord for every church, bus ministry, and individual reaching the children of our nation!

In His service,

Erica Bohman
