DEAR PRAYING FRIENDS & FAMILY –

Coming to you live from North Carolina. This past weekend at Northview Baptist, we had probably more opportunities to share the gospel than I can remember on a single morning! You will probably not believe me when I tell you that a solid four out of six people answered their door and we shared the gospel with more than half of those folks along with inviting the kids to VBS. Such open hearts we are seeing when the unafraid/unashamed servants of the Lord step out into the community with a heart to share the GOOD news of Christ with folks. People responded in a way that I honestly did not expect and haven't seen for a long time: Openness. Is it possible that people are seeing the world events and scratching their head, thinking that something MORE is going on than meets the eye - something spiritual, even apocalyptic...??

Some of you are saying - "no way, nothing is that much different than any other year, since 1973."

I realize that is NOT the mindset of most of you. It was NOT the idea conveyed by a conversation with Tyler, a young man who obviously "dabbled" in the demonic as he explained to me one day that we strangely met outside the church. NOW, I NORMALLY DON'T QUOTE SOMEONE WHO IS COMING FROM SUCH AN UNSTABLE CONDITION and predicament in life, but...just hold on and think about this with me for a minute- OK? His words probably would not have left much impression on me except for the pentagram (used in the occult) tattooed on his arm and his very knowledgeable conversation. Actually I could see that this guy, formerly in the military, was perhaps smarter than the average - at least once upon a time. Now he was involved with drugs and "trying" to get away from bad company and his present lifestyle of drugs. I am trying to give him the "benefit of the doubt" and, as much as possible, accept his opinion as viable. ANYWAY, my point here is that this young man, how reputable I can't say, but with a pentagram on his arm and talking about a regretted deal with the devil - said this: "Things in this country are coming to an end, it's just about over." Ok, you're welcome to take this as a grain of salt if you please, but when the "deal makers" (with the devil) and the Spirit-filled pastors across the nation ARE IN AGREEMENT on last time events, then either we are both deceived and way off OR the crowd-following, broad-road crowd, which somehow still believe the news outlets and whatever is shown on TV are basically right. If we're wrong on this, which puts the very Word of God in question (I DON'T THINK SO!), then I guess we can, as many are, put our trust in this present world system and the words of men OVER the inspired, inerrant Word of the living God. My choice is already made on that one. Be sure.

So, I said all of that to bring to your attention that, I believe, we have little time and it appears that many of our neighbors, believers and unbelievers alike, are seeing a fast moving change in the world that sure looks like THE END IS NEARING. I know some will scoff at that, but DOES IT CHANGE THE TRUTH? It's a good time to "let your light so shine," dear Christian. OK- that's my challenge for now.

CRIMEAN NEWS: We are right in the midst of preparing for our annual youth revival, mini-conference called our "Finale." It will take place during the first week of next month. It requires a fair deal of "office time" for me in administration,
