Serving Christ in Ghana, West Africa

Brethren, Pray for Us II Thess. 3:1

July 2019

Dear Praying Friends,

Greetings in the lovely name of our Saviour. The last few months have been like a rollercoaster. We have experienced tremendous joy on one hand and on the other, we have met with some unexpected sorrow. The joy part was when our son David got married to Abigail Sey on June 14. Abigail is from Techiman in the Bono East Region of Ghana. This is about an eight-hour drive from Accra where we live so we drove that distance with a busload of family and friends from our church to perform both the customary rites and the church wedding at Abigail's hometown. Jeremiah, our oldest son and his family, and Ruth, our daughter who lives and works near Washington, D.C., were all here. Dr. Solomon Owolabi, a dear friend and his wife Christina, their son Ezra Owolabi and their family flew in from Nigeria. Flora and Rhoda Owolabi also flew in from the USA to join us in this happy occasion.

The sorrowful part we have experienced is the home-going of our fellow missionary and friend Pastor Christian Dogor. His burial took place on June 22. He had been fighting cancer for some time now. The Lord called him home on May 10. Pastor Dogor and his wife Emma have been serving the Lord in Ghana since 1982. Please uphold his widow and daughter in prayer.

In our Christian Day School, 20 students completed their studies in the 9th grade. Pray for these young ones as they pass from us to continue their studies in other government sponsored high schools in different parts of the country that the Lord might continue to impact their lives. Their graduation ceremony was conducted on Sunday, June 23, at the Harris Chapel Baptist Church, Accra.

We praise the Lord for answering prayer. Sometime ago we asked prayer for Pastor Abraham Walters, the new pastor of Akramaman Baptist Church. The Lord is reviving the work in this church. His constant visiting and soul winning efforts are paying off. Many new faces are coming to the services and some old members have returned to the Lord. Continue to uphold Pastor Walters in your prayers.

We also thank you for your prayers and faithful financial support that keeps us going in the work of the Lord.

Sincerely in Christ,

Harold & Bridgette Holdbrook
