Serving Christ in Ghana, West Africa

Brethren, Pray for Us II Thess. 3:1

October 2024

Dear Praying Friends,

We bring you greetings from Ghana, West Africa.

Since our last prayer letter some exciting and sad events have happened. The exciting event relates to Ruth Faustina, our second daughter. Ruth was born in the US while we schooled there. She also went to school and graduated in a university there. She lives and works in the United States. Last July, she and her fiancé, Josh Lee, who is also an American, came to Ghana and were married in our home and church. They now live in Woodbridge, Virginia, near Washington DC. We ask prayers for them for the Lord's guidance and blessing on their union together.

The other events I am reporting now were not so exciting. In fact, I wish they had not happened, but that would not be true to life. These sad events pertain to the home-goings of three dear persons in our circles and fellowship. The two pastors were Pastor Fred Ghanson of Repentance Baptist Church at Nkoranza-Akuma, Pastor Henry Appiah-Couby of Calvary Baptist Church at Adomrobe and Mr. Alex Dankwa, a deacon at the Harris Chapel Baptist Church, Haatso, Accra, where I am the senior pastor. We ask prayers for the families and churches whose loved ones have gone home to glory.

Last month my assistant pastor Samuel Dunyo and I attended the BIM I Africa conference that took place at Abidjan, Ivory Coast, a neighboring country, from September 16-19, 2024. We had the privilege to meet several missionaries from different mission fields in Africa and made new friends. Everything about the conference was special. The accommodations, food and fellowship around God's Word were all special. We left the conference grounds with a greater determination by God's grace to obey God's Word in all things as it touches every area of our lives. We thank the Lord for our Africa director Mr. Eric Bohman and Mr. Bob Mach, a veteran missionary in the Ivory Coast, and his staff for organizing such a flawless, profitable and exciting conference for us.

Last, we pause to thank all the churches and friends who continue to support us both with finances and in prayers in our work here in Africa.

Sincerely in Christ,

Harold & Bridgette Holdbrook
