Summer Camp For Haitian Children

Abandoned and Orphan Children Need Your Help

Generation Hope International is sponsoring a week of summer camp for 200 children in Port-Au-Prince, Haiti. This event will begin on August 19th and conclude on the 26th. We have national volunteers to help us in this worthy endeavor. We are excited to devote an entire week to introduce these children to the love of God. The staff is busy planning all the daily activities. Our cooks are preparing a menu so that we can feed the children.

All of these precious children will need basic school supplies. They will need pens, pencils, crayons and backpacks. These backpacks need to be light weight. GHI will need to bring these supplies from the States. If you would like to provide any materials please mail it to: GHI, 512 61st street east, Palmetto, FL 34221.

You can sponsor a child for 30.00 for the week of summer camp. We will need to raise six thousand dollars. Pray that God will touch hearts for these suffering children.
