Five Day Journey Begins to Kiev, Ukraine

On September 22nd, I will be traveling to Kiev with humanitarian aid. A reporter from ABC will be traveling with me. We will begin our trek from Romania. I will have a Ukrainian driver/translator. A van will follow us full of medical supplies, food and clothing. Our main objective is to share the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We will distribute this much needed aid to frontline soldiers returning from the battle field. As our supplies last, we will go into the surrounding villages of Kiev. Many suffered at the hands of Russian bombing. We will be conducting evangelistic services on the 25th. Winter is soon approaching in Ukraine. Thousand are homeless. Hundreds of thousand will have no heat. We will give out as many coats as we can. Kiev is only 250 miles from the Russian border. Your prayers are greatly appreciated.

The Mayor of Volano, Italy visited the Village of Hope with five vans full of aid for the Ukrainian refugee children. In cooperation with the Ukrainian Embassy, the caravan traveled from Volano to Oradea, Romania to bring necessary supplies. The wonderful people of Volano sent most of the furnishings for our newly constructed house. God is touching hearts for this ministry!
