Dear Pastor and Praying Friends,

Missions Conference Season

With fall comes missions conference season. DeAnna and I were able to be in six missions conferences or mission emphasis services in North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, and Tennessee last month. We will be in six more missions conferences in October. Missions conferences are always a great time to get to know the people of the church a little better and to meet other missionaries that might be in the conference. Our desire is always to be a blessing and encourage others about the possibilities of serving in missions.

We are grateful for seven new churches that partnered with us in September. That brings our current support level to 65%. We are thankful for how the Lord has provided our needs as we have traveled on deputation the previous 19 months. As our support continues to increase, we are getting closer to leaving for Spain and ministering to our military personnel. We are excited about the opportunities that are ahead of us.

Witnessing Opportunities

We are always looking for witnessing opportunities to reach our veterans with the gospel while we are out and about. Our World War II, Korea, and Vietnam vets frequently wear hats that allow us to recognize them and thank them for their service to our country. Recently during POW weekend, we met a veteran outside of Walmart who was collecting money. He really liked the tract we gave him and asked if we had any more he could hand out. We were able to supply him with several tracts of every branch of the service and some John and Romans. Pray with us that this would reap fruit for the glory of God.

Update on DeAnna's Health

In our last letter we mentioned that DeAnna was having some esophageal spasms. After she had an endoscopy and biopsies done, the doctor said that her spasms are due to an allergic esophagus. She is on an elimination diet to determine her specific allergies and is already feeling better. We would like to thank all of those that have expressed concern and have prayed for her.

Thank you for your prayers and faithful financial support.

In Christ,

Michael and DeAnna Staley
