Dear Prayer Partners,

Happy 243rd Independence Day, America! As we celebrate Independence Day, we as Christians would be remiss if we do not fervently hold to dependence upon the Lord in a tenacious, resolute manner. The LORD reminded Zerubbabel, who was the civil ruler of Israel, in Zechariah 4:6 that the Temple would be built not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts. Whether we live as American patriots or witness for the Lord as ambassadors for Christ, our power and strength is by the spirit of the Almighty God, not the arm of the flesh.

Since our last prayer letter, there have been three mission trips reported to British Columbia, Romania, and Kenya. Of these three trips, there were 148 professions of faith. Clint Tackett, our newest Team Leader with Christian Laymen Assisting International Missionaries, also reported leading a man to the Lord at a church in Florida. A dear lady also came to trust Christ as her Saviour after a church service that I preached in during last month. Praise the Lord for all of these precious souls coming to Christ.

Here is a photo of the new church building of Harvest Baptist Church in San Juan City, Manila, Philippines. This is the church our family started and nationalized. Pastor Pojas has invited us back to preach the dedication service and to cut the ribbon for the new building. Thank you to all of those who sacrificed and gave to make this building a reality. As the Filipinos gave from their resources, you also gave. Thank you!

In August and September, Glenda and I plan to travel to Unalakleet, Alaska, and to the Philippines. We will be gone one month. Please pray that we will see souls saved and that we will see Christians encouraged in their walk with the Lord. In Alaska, we will conduct "labor of love" mission projects to assist the Eskimos. While in the Philippines, I will be privileged to preach for several of the men who were saved and trained in our ministry at Harvest.

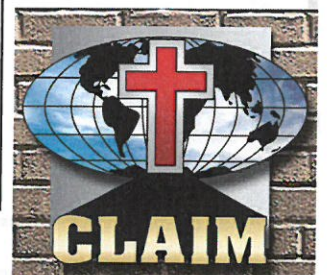

Thank you to those who have given financially for us to make these mission trips. Please pray for the deficit still needed for these two trips. Currently, we are short $3,800 to have enough to cover all the expenses for plane tickets, hotels, food, and travel expenses. We know God will provide.

We wish to thank each of you who prays faithfully for our ministry. Thank you for the faithful financial support provided so we can continue to travel and serve our gracious Lord.

Forever in His Service,

Carl and Glenda Vonnoh
